Alaska Supreme Court

Date: November 12, 2015

I have practiced law in Alaska for 30 years. I started at Perkins Coie in 1985 after graduating cum laude from Willamette Law School. My plan was to work in Alaska for 2-3 years and then return to the Pacific Northwest. But Alaska grows on you. I fell in love with Alaska and its people. After 9 years I moved to my current law firm and I love my work and the people I work with.

My cases have involved contract, tort, survival, wrongful death, statutory, employment, overtime, tax, civil rights, discrimination, constitutional, regulatory, business dissolution, corporate disregard, professional and medical malpractice, aviation, real estate and attorney disciplinary issues. I have worked on cases throughout Alaska, from Southeast (Ketchikan, Sitka, Juneau, Kake, Yakutat), to South Central (Anchorage, Kenai, Palmer) to the interior (Fairbanks) and rural regions (Bethel, Nome, Barrow).

I speak Spanish. I have 4 adult children.
